Alaska Railroad schedules spring “Railroad Days” Open Houses Anchorage Open house slated for Saturday, May 3

ANCHORAGE, Alaska – The Alaska Railroad Corporation (ARRC) invites the public to a “Railroad Days” open house on Saturday, May 3, 2014, 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Anchorage Historic Depot, 411 W. First Avenue.

The Railroad Days community event provides Alaskans with a unique opportunity to interact with railroaders and to learn about the state’s railroad. The open houses features the ever-popular FREE train rides, along with static displays of railroad locomotives, railcars and other equipment that afford an up-close, hands-on experience. When folks climb aboard the static passenger train – the Alaska Travel Train – they will discover ideas for exploring the state’s railbelt communities, and enjoy enchanting flute music. KMXS 103.1 FM Radio will broadcast live from the depot, playing upbeat music that adds to the festive atmosphere. Several activities are geared toward children, such as railroad balloons, tattoos and train safety giveaways. Affordable hot dogs, snacks and beverages will be available thanks to a local PTA. The railroad’s depot gift shop and rail ticket counter will also be open, and the Alaska Railroad will be offering Open House Specials featuring amazing deals on rail travel. A more detailed list of open house activities is included on page 2.

The Alaska Railroad is state-owned corporation providing year-round inter-city public rail transportation from Seward to Anchorage to Fairbanks. More information about railroad passenger service schedules, fares and depot locations is available at www.AlaskaRailroad.com.
