WINTER ROUTES

ALASKA RAILROAD FLAGSTOP SERVICE

The Alaska Railroad's Aurora Winter Train travels from Anchorage through the Mat-Su Valley, stopping in the charming town of Talkeetna, and continues onward to the wilderness of Denali National Park before reaching its terminus in the Interior city of Fairbanks. Travelers on this journey traverse the Alaska Range and enjoy stunning views of panoramic vistas, wildlife, river valleys, and rocky gorges. On clear days, travelers may even see an incredible view of Denali, North America's tallest peak.

Travelers may also choose to ride the Hurricane Turn Train the first Thursday of each month. The Hurricane Turn travels north from Anchorage past Talkeetna, to the backcountry where passengers may access hunting, skiing and remote cabins - or stay onboard to enjoy the views.

Both trains provide flagstop service along the 55-mile stretch north of Talkeetna to Hurricane.

POINTS OF INTEREST:

MILEPOST 226 | TALKEETNA - Gateway to Denali

MILEPOST 279 | DENALI - Photo opportunity

MILEPOST 284 | HURRICANE GULCH - The longest bridge on the Alaska Railroad at 918 feet, and the turnaround point for the Hurricane Turn Train

MILEPOST 304 | BROAD PASS - The lowest pass across the Alaska Range - 2,300 feet

MILEPOST 348 | DENALI NATIONAL PARK

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

PAYMENT: Full payment is required within 72 hours of booking. We accept VISA, MC, Discover and American Express cards.

LATE BOOKINGS: Package bookings that are made within 35 days of departure require a minimum of 24 hours to confirm availability. Full payment is required at the time of booking.

REFUNDS: All winter vacations that are canceled 36 or more days before travel will be refunded 90% of the booking value. No refunds will be issued 35 or less days before travel. No refunds will be issued for unused services.

Rail-only bookings that are canceled one (1) or more days before travel will be refunded 90% of the booking value. No refunds will be issued the day of travel.

CHANGE FEES: All paid bookings are subject to a 10% change fee. Changes are allowed on packages up to 36 days before travel and on rail-only bookings up to one day prior to travel. A "package" is any rail booking that includes a non-rail component. Change fees apply only to the changed value of the booking. No change fees apply when the change increases the cost of the booking. Changes to packages that include flights may incur additional fees. Any charges incurred by the Alaska Railroad as a result of changes made by the customer will be applied to the booking in addition to the change fee. All changes or cancellations must be made during business hours through the Alaska Railroad Reservations Office at 800.544.0552 or 907.265.2494.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance so you can plan your travel with complete peace of mind. Ask your Alaska Railroad reservations agent for a travel insurance quote and about available plans.

CHECK-IN: Please check in one hour prior to the scheduled departure time. Reservations and seat assignments may be altered or reassigned if passenger(s) and baggage are not checked in 15 minutes prior to scheduled departure. The Transportation Security Administration requires that any Alaska Railroad passenger 18 years of age or older present a government issued photo ID, or two other forms of ID, one of which must be issued by a government authority. Children ages 2-15 may only travel in the company of an adult 18 years or older.

BAGGAGE: Alaska Railroad passengers are allowed four pieces of checked baggage and one carry-on. No single piece may weigh over 50 lbs. A special handling fee of $20 per bag applies to oversized bags, bicycles, and other recreational equipment. Firearms may be transported only as checked baggage and must be either disassembled (slide or bolt removed) or have a lock (trigger or cable type) installed to prevent operation, and must be in a locked case. Concealed weapons are not permitted onboard.

Passengers may transport five liters or less of white gas per container in the baggage car. Federal Railroad Administration regulations prohibit the transport of all other types of camping stove fuels and/or motor fuels on passenger trains. Non-service animals must be transported in kennels in the baggage car; a special handling fee of $20 applies. For more information, visit AlaskaRailroad.com/baggage.

SCHEDULES AND FARES: Delays can occur with rail service; the Alaska Railroad recommends a minimum of six hours between scheduled rail arrival time and an air departure. The Alaska Railroad will not be responsible for missed connections. Schedules and prices are subject to change without notice.

The Alaska Railroad Corporation offers a Half Fare Program for seniors (65+) and individuals with certain disabilities, allowing them to travel for half fare during the Alaska Railroad's winter service schedule. For more information about this program, please visit www.AlaskaRailroad.com/HalfFares.

ALTERNATE TRANSPORTATION: The Alaska Railroad will provide the best alternate service available in the event of unforeseen circumstances that may require any part of our service to be altered.

ACCESSIBILITY: We are pleased to provide wheelchair lifts at all stations. Accessibility on other connecting modes of transport can vary, so please check with an agent for details. Alaska Railroad's passenger trains are wheelchair accessible and comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Service animals are welcome aboard.

GROUPS: A group is 15+ paying adult passengers traveling on the same route and on the same day. For more information, call 907.265.2240, or e-mail groupreservations@akrr.com.

CHARTERS: Private cars may be chartered on regular service trains or an entire train may be chartered for special group functions, based on seasonal availability. For more information, e-mail us at charters@akrr.com.

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY: The Alaska Railroad Corporation acts only as an agent for its clients in securing reservations from the various non-affiliated hotels, transportation companies, sightseeing operators and other third parties and is in no way to be considered as the principal or operator of the services. The Alaska Railroad Corporation shall have no liability for loss or damage to baggage or property, or for loss or additional expenses or inconvenience from delay due to acts or omissions of any third party carrier, hotel operator, restaurant or another supplier of services or facilities. The Alaska Railroad Corporation reserves the right to cancel, substitute transportation, or alter for any reason, any rail trip or tour itinerary as current conditions, in the Alaska Railroad's sole opinion, may require.
