WINTER ROUTES

ALASKA RAILROAD FLAGSTOP SERVICE

The Alaska Railroad's Aurora Winter Train travels from Anchorage through the Mat-Su region, stopping in Wasilla then continuing onto the charming town of Talkeetna and onward to the wilderness of Denali National Park before reaching its terminus in the Interior city of Fairbanks. Travelers on this journey traverse the Alaska Range and enjoy stunning views of panoramic vistas, wildlife, river valleys and rocky gorges. On clear days, travelers may even see an incredible view of North America's tallest peak.

Travelers may also choose to ride the Hurricane Turn Train the first Thursday of each month. The Hurricane Turn Train travels north from Anchorage past Talkeetna to the backcountry, where passengers may access hunting, skiing and remote cabins – or stay onboard to enjoy the views.

Both trains provide flagstop service along the 55-mile stretch north of Talkeetna to Hurricane Gulch.

POINTS OF INTEREST:

MILEPOST 160 | WASILLA – Named after a Dena'ina chief

MILEPOST 226 | TALKEETNA – Gateway to Denali National Park

MILEPOST 279 | DENALI VIEW – Photo opportunity

MILEPOST 284 | HURRICANE GULCH – The longest bridge on the Alaska Railroad, at 918 feet, and the turnaround point for the Hurricane Turn Train

MILEPOST 304 | BROAD PASS – The lowest pass in the Alaska Range, at 2,300 feet

MILEPOST 348 | DENALI NATIONAL PARK – Home to 39 species of mammals and 169 species of birds

MILEPOST 470 | FAIRBANKS – Known as Alaska's "Golden Heart City," Fairbanks sits at the northern end of the line.

KNOW BEFORE YOU BOOK

The Alaska Railroad acts only as an agent for its clients in securing reservations from the various non-affiliated hotels, transportation companies and other third-party tour providers. While we will make every effort to accommodate the requests of our clients, hotel and tour substitutions may be necessary to complete the itineraries based on availability.

Prices are not guaranteed until your booking is confirmed by the Alaska Railroad.

We recommend purchasing travel insurance so you can plan your travel with peace of mind.

THE AURORA

6 nights

Available select dates in March
Monday through Saturday

MONDAY – Arrive in Anchorage, Alaska’s largest city. Explore the many downtown shops and restaurants. Overnight in Anchorage.

TUESDAY – Board the Aurora Winter Train and travel north to Talkeetna, watching for views of Denali along the way. The day is yours to explore this small Alaska town; opt to add on a flightseeing tour of Denali, or guided snowshoeing. Overnight in Talkeetna.

WEDNESDAY – Take a guided sled dog tour with an Iditarod champion kennel. Tonight offers another opportunity to enjoy dinner along Talkeetna’s charming Main Street. Overnight in Talkeetna.

THURSDAY – Continue your journey north aboard the Aurora Winter Train, departing Talkeetna in the late morning and arriving in Fairbanks that night. Along the way, travel along the edge of Denali National Park and traverse the Alaska Range. Overnight in Fairbanks.

FRIDAY – Enjoy a relaxed morning at your leisure before setting out on an unforgettable Arctic adventure. Fly from Fairbanks to Coldfoot, taking in sweeping views of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline and remote northern landscape. Continue by comfortable passenger van along the rugged Dalton Highway, crossing the Arctic Circle, receiving your official certificate, and stopping at the Yukon River. Around solar midnight, watch for the northern lights before returning for an overnight stay in Fairbanks.

SATURDAY – Spend your day exploring Fairbanks, a city rich in culture and history. At nightfall, prepare for another evening of guided aurora chasing.

INCLUDES: Rail travel to Talkeetna and Fairbanks, all accommodations, guided dog sledding, Fairbanks City Tour, Aurora Lodge Tour, Fairbanks tours and transfers.

THE BOREALIS DELUXE

8 nights

Available end of February and select dates in March
Saturday through Saturday

ASK ABOUT STARTING THIS TOUR IN ANCHORAGE!

SATURDAY – Arrive in Fairbanks. Overnight in Interior Alaska's largest city.

SUNDAY – Travel to Borealis Basecamp, an off-the-grid destination in a remote boreal forest. Stay in a comfortably appointed geodesic dome with a see-through ceiling, or a private “Cube” – complete with large floor-to-ceiling windows to accommodate aurora viewing from the comfort of your warm bed.

MONDAY – Enjoy a full day exploring Borealis Basecamp. In the evening, embark on a sunset snowcoach adventure before dinner, taking in the breathtaking views as the day winds down. Tonight brings another opportunity for world-class aurora viewing from your private dome.

TUESDAY – Enjoy a relaxing morning at your own pace. Choose to add a walk with reindeer or snowmobiling. Overnight in Fairbanks.

WEDNESDAY – Board the Aurora Winter Train and travel south to Talkeetna, arriving in the late afternoon. Enjoy an evening exploring this small town's charming Main Street. Overnight in Talkeetna.

THURSDAY – Try your hand at Alaska's state sport on a guided dog sledding tour. Enjoy the rest of the day as you wish or opt to add on one of Talkeetna's most renowned experiences: flightseeing over Denali and the Alaska Range. Overnight in Talkeetna.

FRIDAY – Spend your day exploring the quaint and charming town of Talkeetna or for those seeking adventure, join a guided snowshoe adventure. As evening falls, board the Aurora Winter Train for a scenic journey back to Anchorage. Overnight in Anchorage.

SATURDAY – Take a day to experience Alaska's largest city and its surroundings. Add on a Knik Arm Tour to see musk ox, mountains and more (page 17). Overnight in Anchorage.

INCLUDES: Rail travel to Talkeetna and Anchorage, all accommodations, guided dog sledding and transfers.

WINTER ESCAPE

1 night retreat – Interior Alaska
Weekends, late September 2026 - early May 2027

SATURDAY – Take the Aurora Winter Train from Anchorage to Fairbanks for an unforgettable journey across this land of vast mountain ranges and untouched wilderness. Watch for wildlife and, on a clear day, an incredible view of North America’s tallest peak. Overnight in Fairbanks, known for dazzling displays of the aurora borealis.

SUNDAY – Make the most of your Alaska winter getaway with a variety of options. Opt to visit the excellent Museum of the North, partake in a city tour or embark on a dog sledding adventure (page 19). That evening, a short flight provides your return to Anchorage.

Or, reverse the itinerary: fly on Saturday and save the rail journey for Sunday. Travelers originating in Fairbanks may also plan a weekend rail-fly itinerary with an overnight in Anchorage. Ask about extending your time in Fairbanks to add a guided winter journey across the Arctic Circle.

INCLUDES: One-way rail ticket and one-way flight between Anchorage and Fairbanks, a one-night stay and transfers.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

PAYMENT: For Rail-Only and Day-Trip reservations made 36 days or more prior to travel, ARRC offers a 72-hour courtesy hold; after 72 hours, ARRC requires payment in full, or the reservation will be released. Rail-only and day-trip reservations made within 35 days of travel require payment in full at the time of booking. For rail-only and day-trip reservations greater than $2,000, after the 72-hour hold, 10% of the gross booking cost is due or the reservation will be released. The remaining payment is due in full 60 days prior to travel. For Multi-Day Travel Package reservations made 36 days or more prior to travel and greater than $2,000, ARRC offers a 72-hour courtesy hold. After the 72-hour hold, a nonrefundable payment of 10% of the gross booking cost is due, or the reservation will be released; the remaining payment is due in full 60 days prior to travel. Multi-Day Travel Package reservations made within 35 days of travel require payment in full at the time of booking. ARRC accepts company or corporate checks and Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express credit cards.

LATE BOOKINGS: Package bookings that are made within 35 days require a minimum of 24 hours to confirm availability. Full payment is required at the time of booking.

REFUNDS: "Multi-Day Travel Packages" and "Day-Trips" that are canceled 36 or more days before travel will be refunded 90% of the booking value. No refunds will be issued 35 or fewer days before travel. No refunds will be issued for unused services.

Rail-only bookings that are canceled one (1) or more days before travel will be refunded 90% of the booking value. No refunds will be issued for rail-only bookings that are canceled less than 24 hours prior to travel. A passenger must call to confirm cancellations to be eligible for a refund. The Alaska Railroad Reservations office is open Monday - Friday 7 AM - 4 PM and Saturdays 9 AM - 3 PM AKST.

CHANGE FEES: All paid bookings are subject to a 10% change fee. Changes are allowed on packages up to 36 days before travel and on rail-only bookings up to one day prior to travel. A "package" is any rail booking that includes a non-rail component. Change fees apply only to the changed value of the booking. No change fees apply when the change increases the cost of the booking. Borealis Basecamp is non-changeable and non-refundable 45 days prior to travel. Any charges incurred by the Alaska Railroad as a result of changes made by the customer will be applied to the booking in addition to the change fee. All changes or cancellations must be made during business hours through the Alaska Railroad Reservations office at 800.544.0552 or 907.265.2494.

TAKE PRECAUTIONS FOR ALLERGIES: The Alaska Railroad is unable to guarantee a peanut-free or allergen-free trip. Therefore, we strongly encourage passengers with life-threatening or severe allergies to take all necessary medical precautions to prepare for the possibility of exposure. Passengers must travel with all necessary medications for allergies and be capable of self-administering these medications (for example, epinephrine auto-injectors). Parents/guardians must ensure that their children travel with all necessary medications for allergies and are properly trained to self-administer these medications when traveling without a parent or guardian.

ACCESSIBILITY: Winter trains offer wheelchair lifts at Anchorage, Wasilla, Talkeetna and Fairbanks only. Accessibility on other connecting modes of transport can vary, so please check with an agent for details. Alaska Railroad's passenger trains are wheelchair accessible and comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Service animals are welcome aboard.

BRING YOUR MEDICATION WITH YOU: If you anticipate requiring medication en route, please carry it with you aboard your train. You will not have access to checked bags during your journey.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance so you can plan your travel with complete peace of mind. Ask your Alaska Railroad reservations agent for a travel insurance quote and about the available plans.

CHECK-IN: Plan to check in one hour prior to the scheduled departure time. Reservations and seat assignments may be altered or reassigned if passenger and baggage are not checked in 15 minutes prior to scheduled departure. The Transportation Security Administration requires that any Alaska Railroad passenger 18 years of age or older present a government-issued photo ID, or two forms of ID, one of which must be issued by a government authority. Children under the age of 16 may only travel in the company of an adult 18 years or older.

BAGGAGE: Alaska Railroad passengers are allowed four pieces of checked baggage and one carry-on. Additional baggage will have a $20 per bag fee. No single piece may weigh over 50 lbs. A special handling fee of $20 per bag applies to oversized bags, bicycles, other recreational equipment, and animals checked in the baggage car. Firearms may be transported only as checked baggage and must be either disassembled (slide or bolt removed) or have a lock (trigger or cable type) installed to prevent operation, and must be in a locked case. Concealed weapons are not permitted onboard. Passengers may transport five liters or less of white gas or 60 liters or less per container of kerosene in the baggage car. The Federal Railroad Administration prohibits the transport of all other types of camping stove fuels and/or motor fuels on passenger trains. Non-service animals must be transported in kennels in the baggage car. All passengers, baggage and shipments may be subject to inspection. Visit AlaskaRailroad.com/Baggage for more information.

SCHEDULES AND FARES: Delays and cancellations can occur with rail service; the Alaska Railroad recommends a minimum of six hours between scheduled rail arrival time and an air departure. The Alaska Railroad will not be responsible for missed connections. Schedules and prices are subject to change without notice.

The Alaska Railroad offers a 20% discount on published retail rail fares to active duty and retired members of the U.S. military. All holders of an active or retired ID card, including dependents, are eligible for this discounted fare.

ALTERNATE TRANSPORTATION: The Alaska Railroad will provide the best alternate service available in the event of unforeseen circumstances that may require any part of our service to be altered.

GROUPS: A group is 15+ paying adult passengers traveling on the same route and on the same day. For more information e-mail groupreservations@akrr.com or call 907.265.2240.

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY: The Alaska Railroad Corporation acts only as an agent for its clients in securing reservations from the various non-affiliated hotels, transportation companies, sightseeing operators and other third parties and is in no way to be considered as the principal or operator of the services. The Alaska Railroad Corporation shall have no liability for loss or damage to baggage or property, due to acts or omissions of any third-party carrier, hotel operator, restaurant or another supplier of services or facilities. The Alaska Railroad Corporation reserves the right to cancel, substitute transportation or alter for any reason, any rail trip or tour itinerary as current conditions, in the Alaska Railroad's sole opinion, may require.
