

CURRENT CRUISE TRAIN SCHEDULE

The Cruise Train service by ARRC caters to cruise ship passengers and operates from both Seward and Anchorage, following either the Coastal Classic or Glacier Discovery routes. The service is split into two main operations:

- Seward-Based Service: Operating 2-3 days per week, this train offers five dining capabilities: limited galleys in cars 551, 552, 553, and 554, and Club Car service in car 351. Passengers are provided with a light breakfast in the morning and a light lunch in the afternoon. The train arrives in Anchorage after breakfast, turns around quickly, and returns to Whittier and/or Seward. Schedules and days of operation may vary.
- Anchorage-Based Service: Operating 1-2 days per week, this train offers five dining capabilities: limited galleys in cars 551, 552, 553, and 554, and Club Car service in car 351. Passengers are provided with a light breakfast in the morning and a light lunch in the afternoon. The train deadheads to Seward or Whittier to begin service and returns to Seward at the end of the day. It arrives in Anchorage after breakfast, turns around quickly, and heads back south to Whittier and/or Seward. Schedules and days of operation may vary.
